Dear Cindy,

Gee, I just can't tell you how much your friendship has meant to me, these past four years. You just can't express in words how much fun and "mischief" we have experienced. I hope our friendship will continue for many, many years to come. Remember, Cindy, a person is empty to all others. Please stay the person you are now and never change. You have made a person rich in memories, and that's something that really is important. I know you will have a future, because a person like you, always stay close to the Blessed Mother. Always stay close to the Blessed Mother. Always stay close to the Blessed Mother.

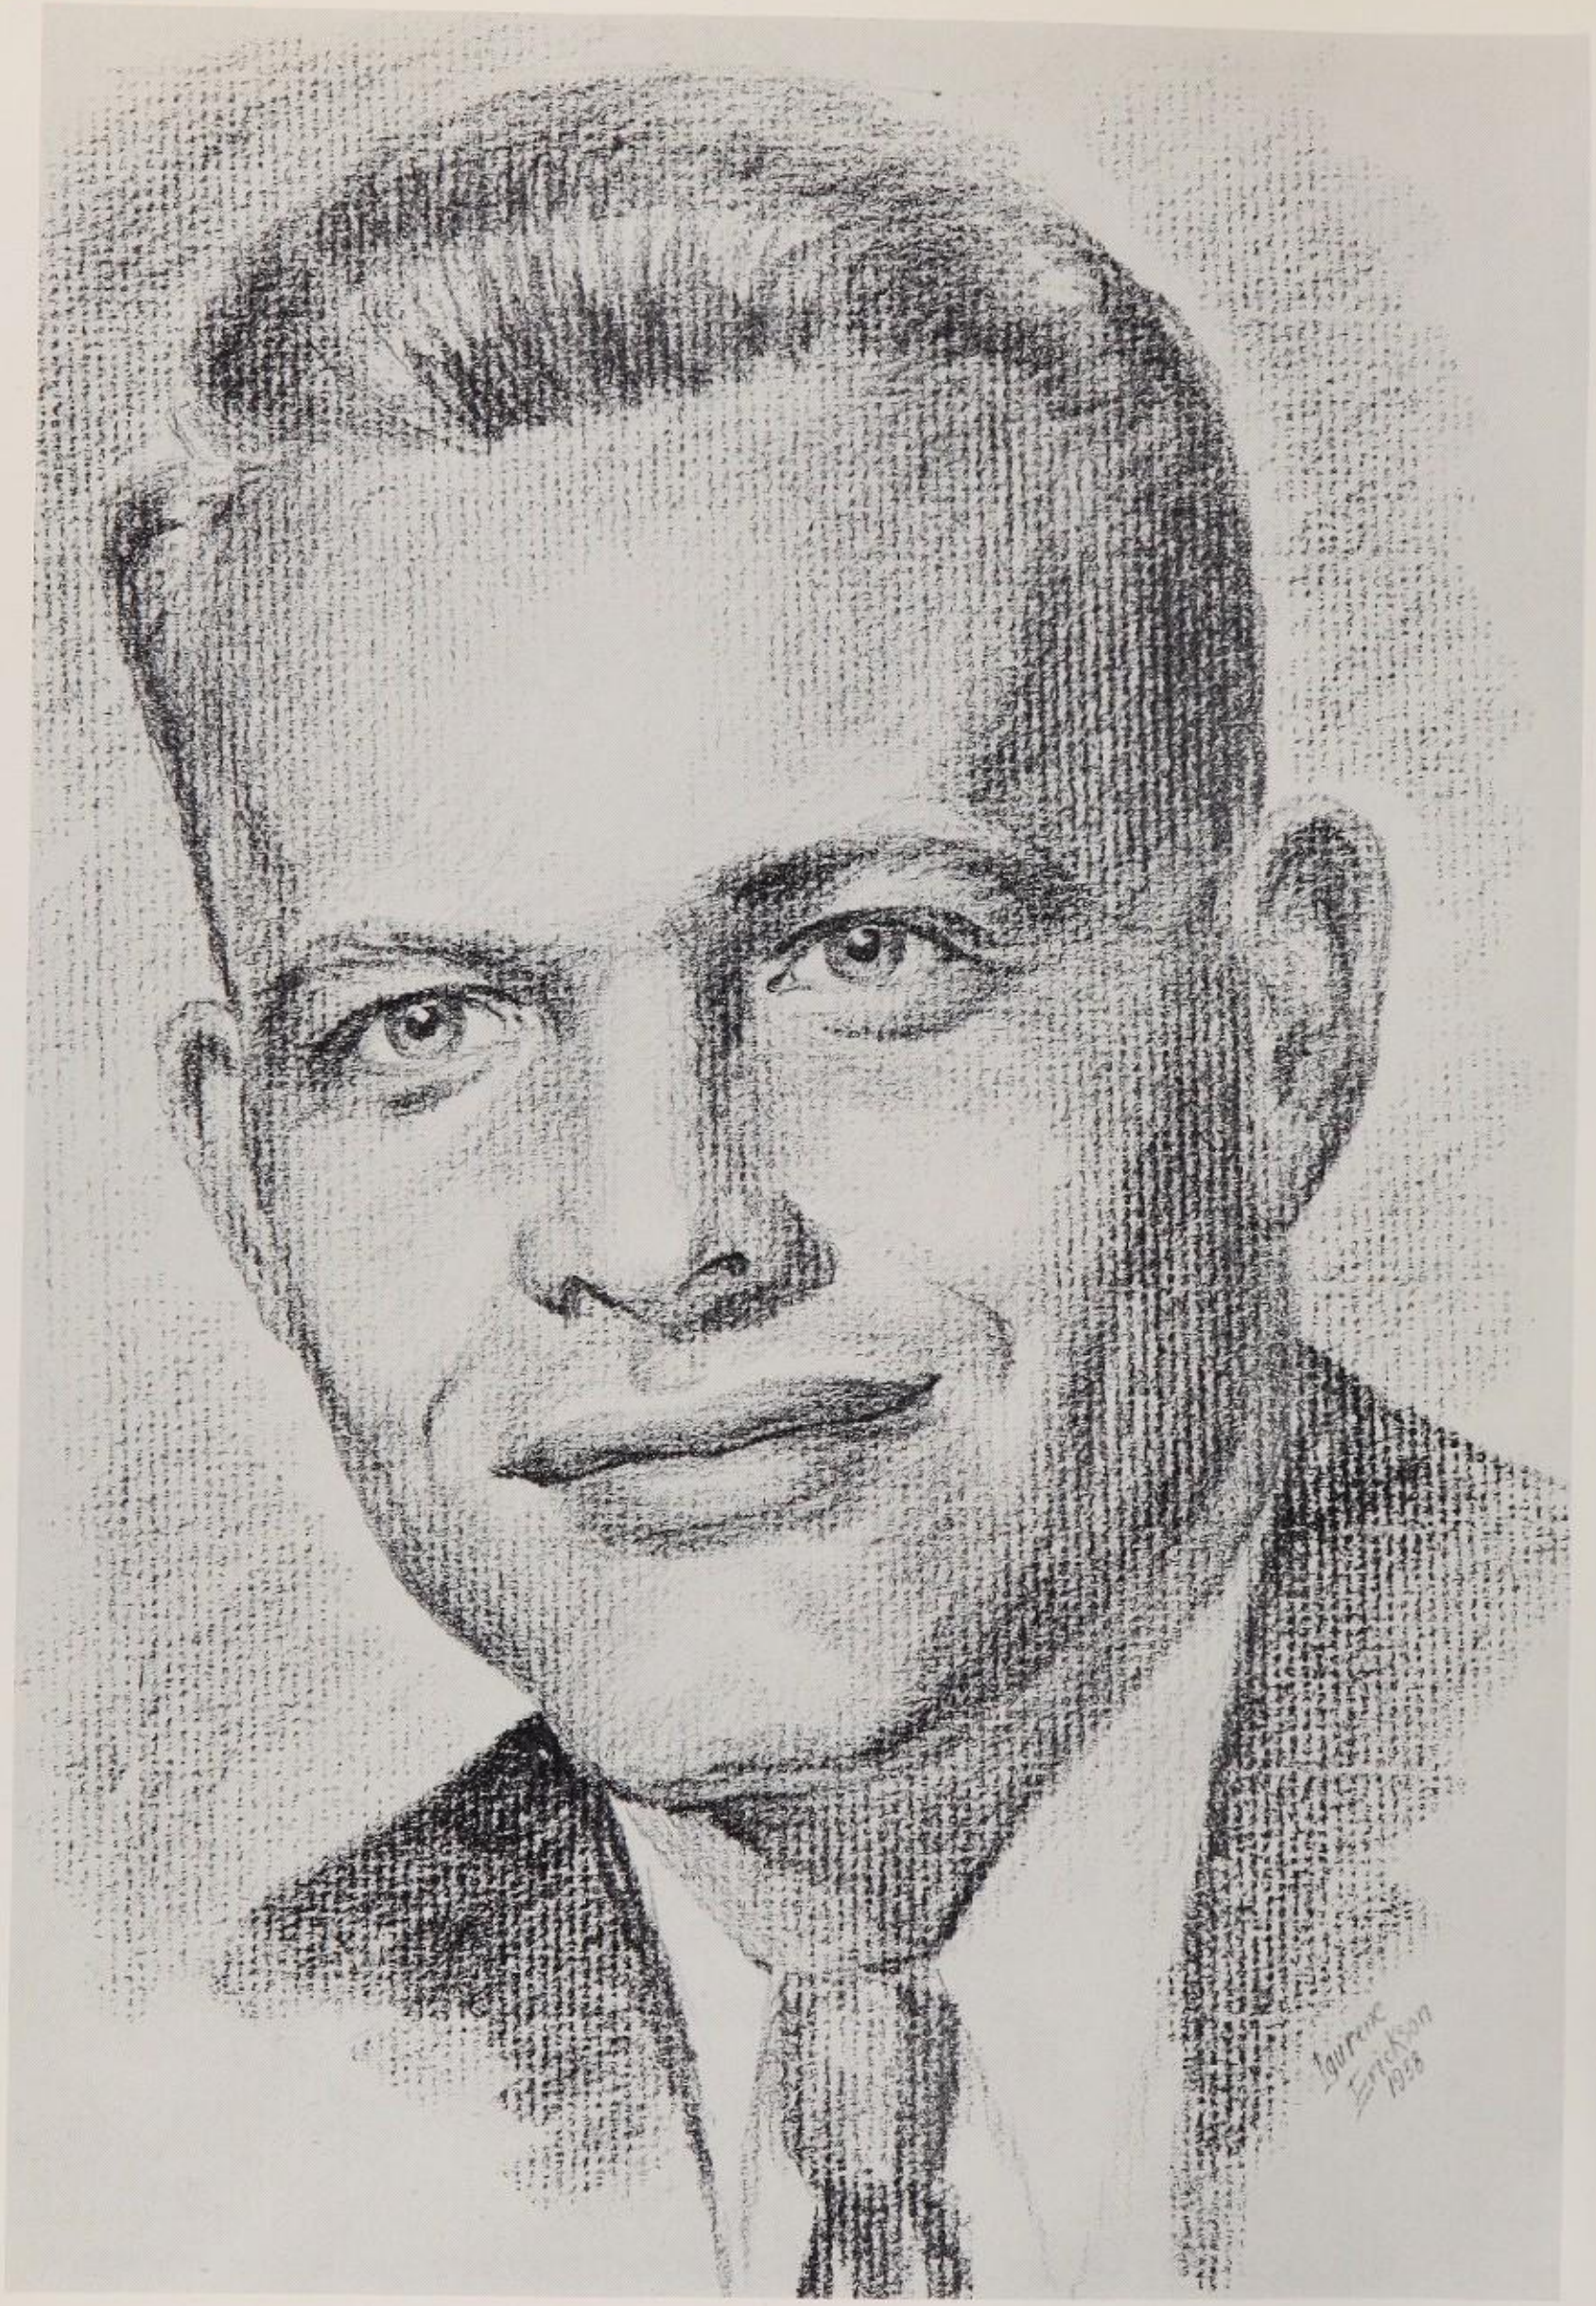
Dedication



Our principal John W. Landrum, to whom this yearbook is dedicated.

This 1957-1958 school year at A. V. has been one filled with progress and advancement concerning the beautifying of our campus and spreading of school spirit. The person behind it has been our principal, Mr. John Landrum, to whom this book is dedicated.

Due to his wise counsel and planning for the future, our school is improving greatly; as we are sure it will continue to do.

For his many years of service to our school, we of the Yucca staff express what we know are the feelings of the combined student body in saying that we appreciate his working for us, and solving numerous problems with a smile and determination.

To a very fine person, we say thank you.

Mr. Landrum looking over the record of one of his students.

We see Mr. Landrum going through the halls in his amiable way.

District Supervisor

As chief executive of the board, Dr. Knapp directs, administers, and supervises all divisions and units of the school system with authority to delegate as may be appropriate.

Having spent more than two decades at A. V., Dr. Knapp has obtained an extensive background for encountering the many problems associated with his office.

We owe many things to Dr. Knapp, namely his responsibility towards the maintenance of Antelope Valley High, which is rated very highly in Southern California, and contending with the ever expanding enrollment which we cope with each year.

District

Our district administrators provided for and directed the improvement of our school district. Under Dr. Roy A. Knapp, District Superintendent, were Mr. Albert L. LoBuono, Assistant Superintendent of Business Services; Mr. Charles M. Parker, Assistant Superintendent in charge of Educational Services.

A very active, spirited class this year were the juniors. Some of their activities were the selling of mistletoe during the Christmas season and the Popcorn Ball which was a very successful dance during Christmas vacation. A Junior Day was held on January 19. The juniors came to school dressed up to give recognition to their day and a Junior Day assembly was presented.

The mighty Sophomores started out their terrific year by sponsoring the dance after the victorious Oxnard game. And, during their exciting (but embarrassing) slave days it was not rare seeing boys wearing lipstick and ribbons and girls carrying the boys' books for them. The little candy canes they sold during the week before Christmas were very good and bought up quickly. Their first semester officers were: President, Eddie Shipley; Vice President, Pam Loeb; Secretary, Vicki Tomosada; Treasurer, Diane Draper; and Reporter, Karen Molachek.

The Bunny Hop before Easter vacation showed originality with the large bunny at the door and decorations of pink, white, green and yellow. The biggest activity sponsored by the Sophomores was the carnival, "Tropical Island" which was held between the swimming pool and the new girls' gym. To the melody of soft Hawaiian music food was sold, games were played, and a generally good time was had by all. The officers during the second semester were very enthusiastic. They were: Faith Rinehart, President; Sammy Logan, Vice President; Bonnie Lough, Secretary; Penny Bunyard, Treasurer; and Chris Barden, Reporter.

The Sophomores were very active this year, under the leadership of Ed Shipley and Faith Rinehart, Sophomore presidents.

During the Christmas season the Sophomores sold candy canes for a fund raising project. A Slave Day was another Sophomore activity. Many Sophomores such as Sharon Rudisell and Corina Prevedello performed in the various assemblies at A. V.

The Sophomores wait for the word to return to their classes after having their pictures taken on Mays Field.

Rosalie and Corina Prevedello perform for the students during one of the many assemblies in which they participated.

Sharon Rudesill and Molly Puterbaugh putting forth their best in the Christmas Assembly.

Freshmen

The Freshman have just completed their first year at A. V. They enjoyed many freshman activities. To start off the year on September 13th a Freshman Welcome Dance was held which greatly helped in getting the freshman acquainted. Bob Zappa and Roberta Mauldin were crowned king and queen of that dance. On Saint Patrick's Day the freshmen sold lolly-pops to raise money for their class treasury.

A Freshman Day was held March 21st. All the freshman came dressed up to school to give recognition to their day. The main event was a dance given to the student body on the library patio fourth period. That night an all freshman dance was held. Mr. Sid Harrington was the Freshman Supervisor and also principal of the fairground classes. Under the leadership of the freshman officers the freshmen have had a very successful year.

A few of this year's achievements are: The Annual Family night and Initiation Dinner, at which approximately 200 people were present. The dinner was entirely made and served by the girls. Mrs. Adams gave a talk and LaWayne Sutterfield, F.F.A. President, also did.

Judy Jones was crowned "Miss F.H.A." at the annual F.F.A.-F.H.A. dance held on March 1 at the Agricultural Building.

The Spring Fashion show held on March 28 was a huge success. This year's theme was "Fashior Fantasies" and all home economic students participated.

All in all this year the F.H.A. did a magnificent job and Miss Maede, Mrs. Goben and Mrs. Kloster deserve much of the credit, along with all the F.H.A. officers.

Farmerettes

The A.V.F. hold their meetings twice a month on alternate Fridays.

At that time they discuss the "Land Judging" sponsored by the Antelope Valley Soil Conservation Dept.

They also discuss the Antelope Valley Fair which they participate in annually.

One of the most important activities is the Farmerette Banquet held each year.

The Farmerettes are striving to make this club a success, and help start more like it in Southern California.

The Future Farmers of America was the largest club on campus, with over a hundred and sixty members, who are students enrolled in vocational agriculture courses at A. V. The F.F.A. held an informal and formal initiation of the new members in the club on October 3.

The F.F.A. were active throughout the year. Two semi-annual F.H.A.-F.F.A. dances were held in the ag. building. "Autumn Leaves" was the theme of the dance held November 23. "Mr. FFA" and "Miss FHA" were crowned at the dance on March 1. The advisors were, Mr. Walquist, Mr. Houghton, Mr. Dolber, and Mr. Gallihur.

Initiations

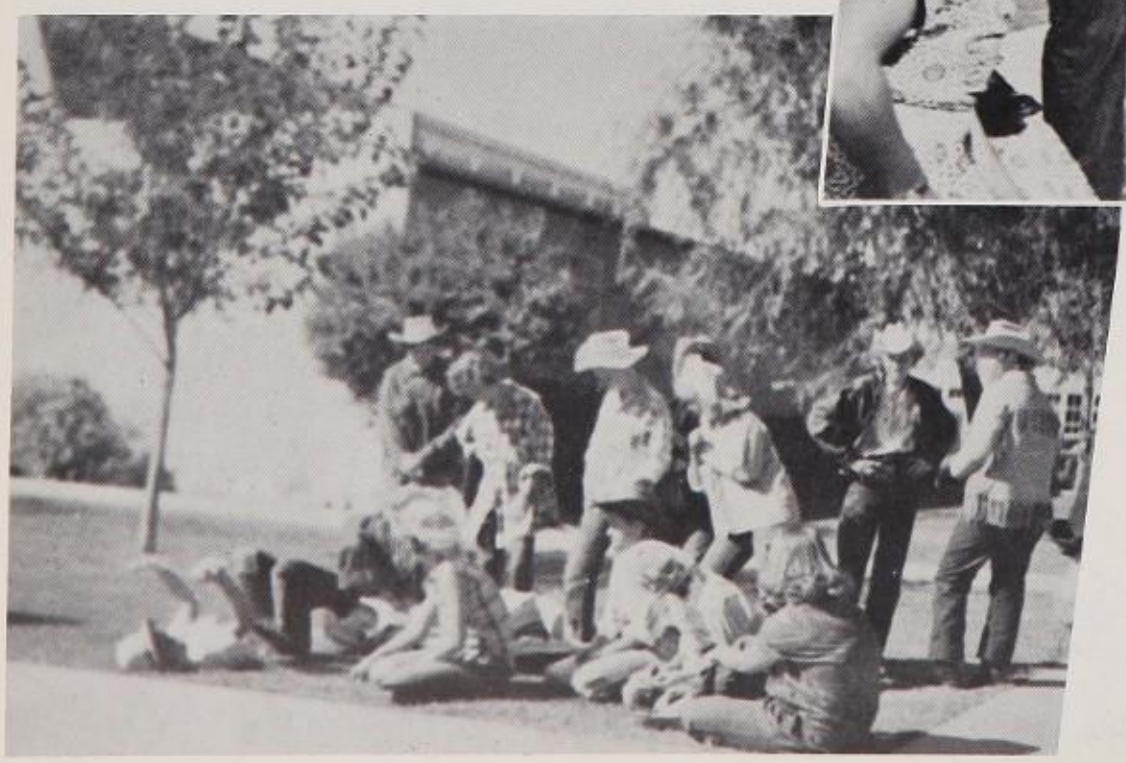
The informal initiation of the F.F.A. consisted of the boys dressing up as "farmers' daughters" and wearing these outfits all during school. They also had to polish the other members' shoes during their noon, or any other part of the day, as you see them doing here. It was held October 3.



The farmerette initiation held October 10 followed along the same lines as the Future Farmer initiation. The first year farmerettes and anyone else who hasn't passed through the initiation rites were required to dress up as a farmer's son. Here are 15 of the initiates. Don't they make lovely "farmer's sons?"

For Fun

Blending voices are three of the five songleaders that had to go through the Songleader Initiation. They had to wear half their hair in curlers and their faces half made-up. From left to right are Judy Brown, Beverly Reynolds, Bonnie Modrell. Not shown are Joyce Donaldson and Sharon Bittermann.

Collecting pennies was just a part of the Majorettes Initiation. Diane Williams is attracting attention in her angel costume. The worst part was the smell of lindburger cheese they had all over them.

Another "glamorous" initiation was the Big A Initiation held on January 24, 1958. The girls had to go through a week of initiation wearing something different every day. Here they are dressed as Indians, war paint, feathers and all.

Glee Clubs

In previous years the A Cappella Choir and the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs have presented excellent programs to the public, and again this year performed outstanding in their annual Spring Concert. Numbers were presented by all three groups along with a fourth group of A. V.'s members of the All Southern California Conference Chorus. The last half of the program was a 30-minute presentation of the comic opera "Martha". The Choir and Glee Clubs also attended festivals in Long Beach and Fullerton.

DRUM MAJOR
Dick Kraber

Included in our Award Winning Band are the Majorettes and PomPom girls.

This year with Janet Dwyer as president of the Kappa Legga Bootz and Judy Stout as vice president. It was heard the girls had a rip-roaring time.

The day of initiation was quite a riot. The girls being initiated wore angel costumes and also were not allowed to wear make-up or curl their hair. The initiating majorettes also helped the matter by making them eat garlic, onions and limburger. I think the general plea of the students at A. V. was "Please don't come near me."

Assemblies

Under the leadership of Gary Green, assembly manager, many entertaining and educational assemblies were presented at Antelope Valley High. Various national and student participation assemblies were seen in the auditorium and gym.

Some of the most outstanding were the Christmas program presented by the music department and one-act plays given by the drama department. The wide variety of speakers and performers in national assemblies were also of great interest and enjoyed by all.

A group of curious onlookers gather around Carl Scobie and his daughter, Carolyn, as they display a variety of reptiles. These two snake authorities presented a National Assembly on October 16, in which they discussed the different types of snakes and their habits.

Dramatics

Many good plays were presented this year at A. V. To start off the year an evening of one-act plays were presented under the direction of Miss Muriel McDaniel on November 21. They were: "Beware the Bear," about a girls' camp and an escaped convict; "Sparkin," a hillbilly romance; "Afterwards," a teenage love story with a new twist; "If Girls Asked Boys for Dates," a teenage comedy.

A Christmas play, directed by Mr. Thompson, was written entirely by English students about what would happen if Jesus were born in modern times.

"Fog on the Valley" was the play A. V. entered in the one-act play tournament at the Pasadena Playhouse. Of course the biggest production this year was the spring play "Our Town." Sue Nash and Lynn Donaldson had the leads.

Judith Carson (Nada Laposso) shows Norrie (Billie Stewart), her stepson, a picture of his real mother in a touching scene from "Fog on the Valley."

Sharon Rudisell dances with her wind-up doll, Molly Puterbaugh in a skit presented with the Christmas play.

This is a scene from the Christmas play. Shown here are Betty Niven as Cindy, the annoying little sister, and two typical teenagers Scott and Jinny, played by Don Mirani and Pam Bunyard

"Good morning, Reverend!" greets Tom Najarian, playing Clem, a land-hungry farmer. The part of the reverend was played by Bob Gage and Nada Lapossa and Mary Johns played the parts of a widow and a helpful neighbor in the play "Fog on the Valley."

Fads and

The fashions this year were very colorful and stylish. The most popular outfits seemed to be the sweaters and skirts dyed-to-match with sapphire blue and various shades of green predominating. Red was also a favorite color which was seen in skirts and sweaters, especially the bulky knit sweaters. The sweaters came in new and different styles, most of them having three-quarter length sleeves with collars and buttons to add the decorative touch.

AV COUPLE Here's a cute AV couple. Carolyn Lawrence is wearing a turquoise cardigan sweater, black skirt and black shoes. Tom Lile wearing a red and black ivy-league shirt, white ivy-league slacks and white bucks, checks his watch to be sure that they aren't late for class.

MEETING ON FRONT LAWN A common sight is everyone meeting on the front lawn after school. Donna Hammon, wearing her stylish beige poplin car coat, and ivy-league shoes meets Fred Renfroe, wearing tan ivy-league slacks, tan jacket and white loafers.

IN BETWEEN CLASSES Carol Stewart is modeling a green full skirt, and green and white striped blouse. This outfit is accented with a black leather belt and black "T" straps shoes. She is talking to Sharna Higgins who is wearing a red cotton pique empire waist sheath.

Fashions

STUDIOUS STUDENTS Still very interested in their last class, Vicki Clements and Dennis Moses talk things over. Vicki showing off her charcoal jumper, her pretty red bulky-knit sweater and red shoes. Dennis is wearing levis, red V neck sweater, and white bucks.

Shirts with button-down collars and ivy-league pants were on the top of the list with the boys. They also wore some cleverly styled sweaters which included the sweater shirt and the ever popular V neck sweater.

A collegiate look came to A.V. in heavy wool sweaters and pleated plaid skirts and in the trim and tailored ivy-league fashions. A fad started by some of the girls in connection with this trend was wearing knee-socks with pleated or straight skirts.

TYPICAL SCENE Helen Zufelt is modeling a charcoal black gored skirt and an emerald green sweater. Aram Najarian is wearing tan ivy-league slacks, Letterman's jacket, and black and white saddle shoes. This is a typical sight around the campus.

Christmas Ball

One of the biggest dances of the season was the annual Christmas Ball held December 14. The theme "Sleigh Ride to the Stars" was the romantic setting for this formal dance.

Homecoming Dance

The new cafeteria was the scene of the Homecoming dance held November 1 after the Homecoming game. The dance was sponsored by the senior class and was enjoyed by the many Alumni and high school students attending.

Dances and Activities

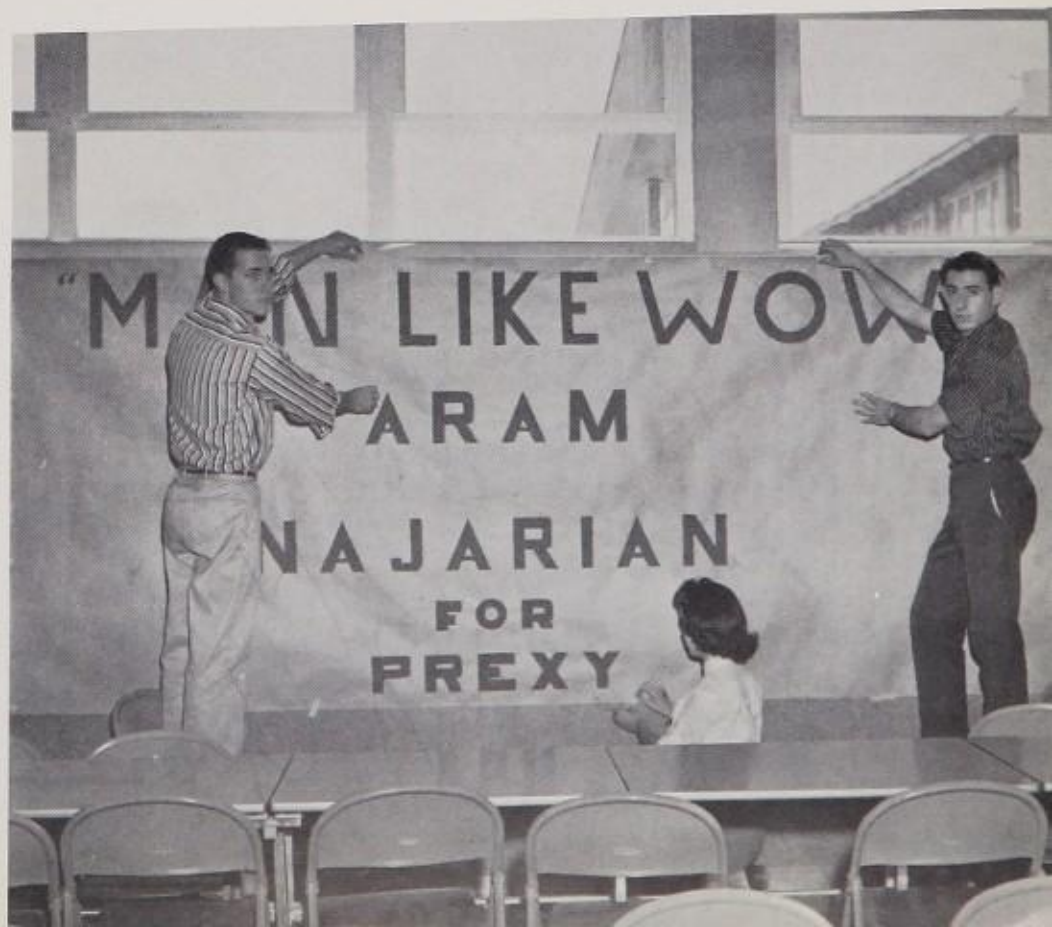
A.V. has had some wonderful dances and activities this year. Two of the biggest dances of the year were the Christmas Ball and the Junior-Senior prom which were both very successful.

Enthusiastic campaigning was seen at election time for student body and class officers. Colorful posters of all sizes and shapes were seen everywhere. The rewards of these efforts seem to be worth it.

Ann Dahlitz and Helen Zufelt give their campaign speeches for the senior campaign assembly held February 12.

Carol Rake kisses Duke Duccommon under the mistletoe held by Nancy Teters to help advertise the mistletoe sale sponsored by the Junior class at Christmas time.

The "bigger the better" was the theme for campaign posters for the student body elections. Fred Welch, Margaret Furry, and Gary Green help put up Aram's huge poster.



A. V. has seen more school spirit than any other year thanks to the Yell Leaders:
Beverly Wade, Jackie Criffield, Ann Dahlitz, Cathy Lessing, head cheerleader 1st semester; and Helen Zufelt, head cheerleader 2nd semester.
Songleaders:
Bonnie Modrel, Beverley Reynolds, Sharon Bittermann, Joyce Donaldson, head song leader; and Judy Brown.

Our Song and Yell Leaders

Our Mascot

This year A.V. added a bright little figure on campus known as Annie Antelope. Pat Tullos, as Annie, encouraged school spirit and acted as the team's mascot at games and other school activities.

OUR SPIRITED SEASON

Our '58 Antelopes had a terrific season with a very spirited team of which we are proud. It will always be remembered and highly spoken of by students and alumni. The '58 Antelopes, we're glad to say, were the first Channel League Co-Champs. The review of the games were as follows: Our first game, though not a league game, A.V. bowed to the Cathedral "Phantoms." They went on to trample the San Berdoo Cardinals. In their next game the mighty Antelopes journeyed to Las Vegas and held El Rancho to a tie. Ventura managed to squeeze by the Antelopes in the following game. With C.I.F. hopes high, A.V. knocked off the strong Santa Barbara team to make our homecoming complete. A.V. went on to stun the Oxnard Yellowjackets. A.V. led by one point until half time and then went touchdown crazy. It was the "do or die" game of the season. With this victory they became the first Channel League Co-Champs. Dennis Ekimoto scored victoriously with five touchdowns. A.V. stampeded the Mustangs for a brilliant victory in the C.I.F. playoffs. At the end of this terrific season the Antelopes went down in a fighting defeat to the Riverside Bears. Ron Worden, Cliff Jordan, and Dennis Ekimoto made All Channel League. Dennis went on to make the C.I.F. team.

Varsity players wait for the outcome of a tense moment during the Homecoming game November 1 with varied expressions.

Girls' P.E. Department

Heading the Girls' P.E. department this year was Miss Gloria Ketteringham. Other teachers in the department were Miss Carol Bell, Mrs. Sandra Dee, Miss Janece Doggett, Miss Gail Evans, and Mrs. Joann Marshall, who all worked very hard to make this year one of the best and most enjoyable years for A.V. girls in all classes. Basketball, Tennis, Hockey, and many other sports were planned for the school year's activities.

Girls and Sports

The girls' P.E. teachers are found in the girls' gym office between classes.

The girls had lots of fun this year in gym, modern dancing and on the courts playing volleyball, basketball and tennis. Interclass competition was held with many teams bound and determined to win showing the best of their skills.

All girls are required to participate in P. E. classes. This year, the last in the old girls gym, prevented Juniors and Seniors from having a dance program as they have had in previous years. However, modern dance was taught to individual Junior and Senior classes.

The girls particularly enjoyed the variety of sports offered them, which included: tennis, golf, archery, and baseball. The tennis tournaments were a source of tough competition and lots of fun as well.

The girls not only have developed skill in sports, but have also acquired sportsmanship.

Swan Song

With the last piece of copy and the last picture sent to the publishers now is the time for me, as editor of the 1958 Yucca, to express my sincere appreciation for those who helped to give you a yearbook we hope you can be proud of.

First on the list is Mr. Ralph Nybakken, our advisor, whose understanding and guidance made the work easier. Of course we couldn't have made it without the wonderful aid of my associate editors, Stan Anderson, Jule Bishop, Pat Cunningham, Margaret Furry, Earlene Illian, and Kitty Price, our student photographers, Cliff Richards and Ken Hammond and Yucca staff, with their long hours of hard work.

To the staff of Yearbooks, Incorporated of California, Monrovia, our publisher, Alfred and Fabris studio, for the excellent photography, and Ed Nofziger for the clever artwork on the cover and division pages, go also our many thanks.

Being editor of this yearbook was a rewarding experience and one never to be forgotten. My one wish now is that this Yucca will serve as a reminder of the wonderful, fun-filled year you have just spent at A.V.

So long for now—

Madeline

I want you to know how much I have enjoyed your friendship this past year. I remember our Freshman year, compared to this year. Boy have we both changed. I will always remember your friendly smile, and your brains. Which I have welcome on test days.

Cindy we both have changed our minds about alot of things and in doing so, we have both grown up a great deal. I'm going back about six months ago. when you were dating Richard. you were so understanding and we were brought closer together in our friendships, by this change which at taken place. I also remember how you had to put up with me, and my But I think you understood. Then you and Richard, Bob and I broke up. For about three months we just sat home. Then we went to a party had Rosemary's and things began to change. For you met Johnny and within a few weeks you were dating Johnny. Now your going steady. One of the things which I think every girl should experience Who knows maybe in a few years you may be married. But just take your time like I am. Ha

Cindy who knows what the future may be like. But what every I do is just stay the way you are now. I want to wish you the best of luck with Johnny, and in what way you plan to go into after you graduate.

I hope to see you next year, and have at least five classes with you.

Be seeing you this summer. God Bless You.

Love Always
